Happy Thanksgiving

November 27, 2014

★ Personal Thanksgiving Message

There is so much I have to be grateful for and I know the more appreciative I am, the more abundance I receive. Because I work behind the scenes and see much of what goes on in the world that isn't yet visible, most won't realize how blessed they really are and how much good is going on in the world. Believe me, there is much to be thankful for at this time. The news is focused so often on the negative. It appears the world is dismal at times. From where I sit, it is the most fabulous time you could imagine and getting better every day.

The biggest thing to be grateful for at this time is how much heaven is here assisting to make your life better and easier.

There are countless ways that heaven is assisting but, in particular, but for Thanksgiving I was asked to share a gift to help you personally. By helping you with this gift, you, as well as the world, will be able to experience more balance and peace.

Far too long the world has experienced imbalance between the masculine and feminine energies internally as well as externally. These imbalances of nature have caused much of the problems in the world including many of those you now face.

The gift we are being given is something you can use for Thanksgiving

Toast

Take apple cider and some pure water. Do not be concerned about how much of each. It can be very little water. It, however, needs to be in the same glass.

Then make the following toast:

"I am aligned with the divine within my heart to access all there is."

12:12:12

The number 12 is the number of spiritual completion. The first time I was guided to do this toast, it was on May 30, 2013 at 12:12 PM, which turned out to have spiritual significance far beyond the imagination. Let's just say that it opened up much for all. However, I will leave the telling of that story to a later date. I am sharing with you the significance of the number 12 though for the power of spiritual completion in case you'd like to enhance the effort. Doing this spiritual process and toast anytime, however, is useful.

It can be an especially impactful toast at Thanksgiving since you make the toast with friends and family so they too may be brought more into balance because of it. The more balance for each, the more balance in the world. The more as well as any time you are so inspired. It will help rebalance the masculine and feminine energies, doing versus being and giving versus receiving. When these aspects of ourselves and life are in balance, we experience divine flow. Without them we continue to create results that are out of balance.

In all the years I have worked with and for God, I must say his solutions are far less complicated than ours. His gift at this time to bring all back into balance will help expedite achieving peace on earth.

Enjoy the toast and enjoy your Thanksgiving.

May you recognize the many blessings available to you within your own heart.

Love and Light,

Joy

balance in the world, the more peace in the world.
