Archangel Michael on Future

The time has come for the truth to unfold so all humanity is set free from the shackles that have bound them for aeons of time. Over the coming months, we will be delivering to you information that will enlighten, enliven and bring up issues that have been sequestered within your subconscious. I promise you, you will take issue with some of the things I tell you. At other times you will rejoice in knowing the truth, at last.

I have only one request of you and that is to stay open. There will be nuggets within that will set you free and that is my goal. My goal is to set you free from much of the untruths that have plagued humanity to date. Untruths that have held you back and caused you pain, separation and deprivation.

As Joy sits here taking dictation, she is beginning to squirm wondering where I will be going with all this. She is questioning whether or not she wants to be put in the middle. This is someone who is committed to truth and also helping others and even she has doubts. So imagine how doubtful others will be.

We have had her busy doing other things for us, which is why you haven't heard from her regularly. We want her to deliver more messages to you from us to inform and prepare you for the future. The future is a bright one and the reason for communicating is to help you realize it sooner.

You have an active role in helping everyone attain a brighter future sooner than later. We, your heavenly colleagues, have big goals in mind for the planet. It is our hope that you embrace change easily and join forces with us in this bright future.

Archangel Michael

A New Beginning...

I felt lax in my efforts to keep in touch as much as I used to or would have liked to with you. The work Michael eluded to above, kept me away from a lot of what I would have wanted to do overall. I don't complain often because what we have accomplished was extraordinary. I also knew there would be a time when we were to begin sharing what has affected the world and what has changed.

Her pro bono work focuses on a global peace and prosperity initiative healing the cause of the imbalances to atrocities of life affecting all.

For further background on her work, visit Express Success.

And, as Michael said above, how to prepare for the future.

Some of this information I am aware of and other things will be delivered to you right after I learn it for the first time.

There have been times I have said I wish I could go back to normal (whatever that is) but know nothing is quite as interesting as what I have experienced the last couple of years in my work with Michael. This has been a wild ride and now it looks like I'll be able to begin sharing what is important for you to know with you.
