The Future

The future is much brighter than it appears to many. Many of you have suffered much under the control and manipulation that has existed far too long. The powers that have pulled strings on our economy, on our governments and institutions are beginning to turn to the light. The causal level of these issues have or are being addressed.

What is important to understand is that change needs to take place on a spiritual level before it can change profoundly on the physical. By combining efforts on the physical or conscious level, you can make things happen faster.

You now have power to create your future. You have always had that power but have often been manipulated to not realize how powerful you really are. There have been mechanisms in place to thwart your very efforts. Those mechanisms are falling away.

By recognizing you have the power to change the future, you can change it more deliberately. Setting your intention to create that which you prefer is key.

What is also important to know is that many of the energies and efforts of darkness that has been in power undermining your efforts until now are no longer sabotaging to the degree they once did.

With the increase of light on the planet, you as well as the planet, can vibrate higher making it easier to create and attract what you want with ease. The more you accept those possibilities and commit to your visions, the quicker you can create the future you prefer. Return to the power that lies within you and create from there.

Once you let go of the negative memories of hardship and struggle, it also contributes to more ease in attracting the future you have envisioned. Forgive those who have wronged you, held you back, sabotaged you, diminished you, oppressed you, etc.

The more of you who embrace the light and the brilliance and opportunity it provides, the sooner it will become easier for all to experience a more ideal life.

There are many things changing behind the scenes in the world preparing all for a brighter future. So much is being done to change the world.

to Change Your Life. She was also a contributing author to Big Bold Business. Her chapter addresses how your subconscious is either supporting or sabotaging your success.

Her pro bono work focuses on a global peace and prosperity initiative healing the cause of the imbalances of life to the atrocities affecting all.

But you don't have to wait for the world to change. You are in a position to help it change faster. You do so by giving up the ideas of the way it has always been to embrace the infinite possibilities this bright future holds. The more of you who embrace that vision, the sooner it will occur. By turning your thoughts from the past and the way it has been to the future and the way it could be, the sooner what is possible manifests.

Engage in creating a bright future for all by letting go of limiting thoughts based on past experiences. Decide the thoughts that will magnify the results you prefer. Exercise, support and live into them instead.

This world was a beautiful and peaceful place a long time ago. It could be again. It wasn't created to be dark, but it did become dark. It has been run by darkness far too long. It is no longer run by darkness. Although there is still evidence of the effects of that darkness running things still exists, those methods are on their way out. Operating from and aligning with those dark places of the past, keeps you participating there. The more each and everyone chooses light and positive possibility, the more that will be what is realized for all. We can move ourselves out from under this dark shadow and embrace the light that is filled with infinite potential.

It is our collective responsibility to return this planet to a beautiful and peaceful place full of potential. What can you do to make it so? What can you do to make your future brighter and the world brighter for all? We are in this together. We all chose to come here to be here at this time for this most momentous time in history. Isn't it time to have all begin to respond with a positive outlook looking forward rather than backward?

Isn't it time to turn on the lights and see the bright future that exists for all?

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.

Blessings,
Joy
