Greetings

I asked who had a message to share with you this week and today Archangel Faith wanted to speak to you about the divine feminine.

Wednesday marked the Women's Equality Day. We are making progress! Last February we cleared a curse of the divine feminine and when we subsequently checked in with Mother Mary, it appeared there was still work to be done. Now, Archangel Faith is sharing her update from that last message following the release of that curse with a new twist.

Have a blessed weekend,

Joy

The Divine Feminine

To the women of the world, I wish to sing your praise.
You have won an arduous fight to gain your equality!

At this time the divine feminine is merging with the divine masculine. It is time for all to become one. The separation that took place between the masculine and the feminine became a competition of sorts. One looked upon the other as to whom held more value. The strength and might of the masculine took hold out of sheer arrogance expressing that might. The fall and suppression of the divine feminine became it's undoing, however. That is no longer the case. The rebalancing has begun. It is time for all to be renewed and restored to its original state of love and balance.

Why is this so important? Until the divine feminine is restored, prosperity cannot be fully restored. For the divine feminine is the receiver. When the divine feminine is denied, so is the ability to receive. When the divine feminine was suppressed, but force became necessary to obtain wealth. Rather than have the ability to openly and easily receive, that ability was denied as the feminine was denied. Therefore, it became more difficult to easily receive so all had to take more effort to go out and get or take what was possible.

When the divine feminine was honored, all could receive more readily. No one was denied. There was balance between giving and receiving. All won and prospered. The more the masculine became empowered and the feminine denied, the less easily it was to receive - for anyone to receive. The choices of the few to deny the feminine became the burden of the many.

The world as a whole became imbalanced because it became more about doing than a natural flow of give and take. The flow of giving and receiving was altered to become more about doing so you could get. Prior to that it was a natural flow with the ability to be as well as receive. Everything was more effortless. The more balanced the divine masculine and the divine feminine within is balanced, the more effortless it will become.
