Personal Message

Since we shifted into the new world, my work has been definitely changing. We worked on clearing the effects of persecution, sacrifice and now this week the ways in which darkness masked itself as light to manipulate.

It's taken a toll on my energy and I finally said that's enough so I'm going to meet with Archangel Michael to map out the plans for this next phase of my work. The dynamics of the way I serve will change including my sessions, I believe.

In the interim, if you are wanting a clearing, now is the time to get it while old pricing, etc. are in place. I am not sure all of how it will look but I already received the outline of a particular workshop Michael wants me to deliver. There will be a group program that will follow but I am not sure the rest of the particulars.

It is time to let go of the past. Everything needs to be brought into alignment. Old debts need to be paid, karma needs to be released and most of all fear, which is still rampant, needs to be released. Letting go, rebalancing and realigning of all needs to occur to ultimately set you free to experience all that is possible for you now.

I asked this morning what information I could share today that would be most helpful. The following message is what they dictated for me to share with you this day.

Blessings,

Joy

The Times Are Changing

The times are changing. The way in which you need operate in the world must change to embrace, enhance and capitalize on the new world order. The old way of thinking and doing will not work if you want optimal results. Linear thinking and doing is not the way of the new world. That is the old world way of being.

Now, for some insights on what is to come. The new world order brings with it the age of enlightenment - the coming of age of all the earth's inhabitants to know who they are at essence. They will become aware of who they are as nature. They will know who they are as part of the whole and each other.

New methods of doing business, new technology and new opportunities for work will begin to appear. It will be subtle at first but over time you will have noticed much difference. Things will be gradual at first but once you embrace these new energies and vibrations, the possibilities will unfold much faster.

The time now is for you to let go of the past. It is time to let go of the old methods and ways of doing things, including business. The way you will do business in the future will be much different. It will be much more heart centered. It will take into consideration the whole and not just the few who are in charge. It will no longer just be about the owner, or creator of the project, but what will serve the largest number of participants and those affected.

Nothing will be willy-nilly but rather strategic. Why do I say willy-nilly? Willy-nilly is what it is while separated from Source. When connected with Source, all is in divine order. Divine order creates with ease, effortlessness and takes into consideration the whole rather than just the few. Therefore, the more well thought out and orchestrated, the fewer the problems.

Let's get to know each other, the challenges you face and the solutions I provide. If there's a fit, we can decide together what options are best for you.

There doesn't need to be problems. Problems come from the separation of Source. ALL problems come from the separation from Source. When you align with Source, you can solve any problem. Those of you who have problems, have more of a problem with your alignment with Source than anything else. Where there is a problem, there is an imbalance. Heal the imbalance and the problem goes away.

The time for change is here, and now is the time for you to change your mind. It is time for you to align with the divine within your own heart to access all there is.
