Happy Thanksgiving and More...

As some of you who connect with me on social media know, Archangel Michael had a lot to say in response to the news of violence and the response by the masses. If you missed his feedback as well as his solutions, I've attached the links below.

What most people don't know is that these acts of violence are still the results of the fallen angels. The majority of people look at current events as having current causes but often they are left over programming from what has been set in place from aeons ago. Their efforts to undermine humanity were quite successful. You are still evidencing the effects of their efforts throughout the world, industry and culture.

Many problems are caused or contributed to by the efforts of the fallen angels.

The focus of my work going forward is to set the record straight as well as provide solutions to the undoing of humanity so no one need suffer any longer. I'll be elaborating on the cause and effects of programming and persecution as well as provide opportunity to release both. I'm working on a new book, program and packages that will educate as well as release these negative effects to eliminate suffering. We can step into a world that is one of joy, peace, love, balance, freedom and abundance. We have to let go of the cause and effects, however, of that not being so to make that happen.

In the interim, I will continue to provide the customized healing that I currently do that addresses these and other issues for the individual, their families and businesses.

As I have a lot to put into place, including a video interview I'm doing next Friday to begin explaining some of these dynamics, I am not going to do a newsletter next week.

I am wishing you a happy Thanksgiving hoping you will be focusing more on the things you can be grateful for rather than focusing on what you see as negative evidence of the methods in the world that hasn't worked toward the experience of joy, love, peace, freedom and abundance for all.

Know that it was predicted that things would look worse before they got better.

Know that your love and forgiveness matters more than you know (see the messages below for clarification.

I would love to leave you with this knowing for this Thanksgiving - that you can be grateful for the power to change your life and the world and that power lies within and is available to you now. Be thankful for the divine within you that you can partner with to make all the difference in your world and the world at large.

Blessings to you. I am wishing you a Thanksgiving filled with peace, love, and joy beyond all understanding.

Faithfully yours,
Joy

Let's get to know each other, the challenges you face and the solutions I provide. If there's a fit, we can decide together what options are best for you.

Wisdom of the Guardian

Over the years, Michael has told me countless times that persecution was a specialty of mine to clear. I have cleared it from my past lives, as well as numerous others. These memories are what often holds lightworkers, healers and others back from finding and fulfilling their calling.

Archangel Michael's suggestion regarding clearing it within helps clear it from the planet as a whole. By releasing this baggage, it sets you and all free from the threat of persecution.

All deserve to be and feel free.

Archangel Michael's Discussion on Paris Events and Peace

The recent events of violence brought up much reaction and dialogue from the masses.

Archangel Michael shared his thoughts on the subject and empowered everyone to perfect and right action to solve it not only for themselves but for the world at large.

I realize there is a lot of skepticism and much feeling of helplessness that you are only one person and question how you can make a difference.

Know that you can. The bigger question is whether you will take the steps to make the difference. Obviously, I am here to assist you if you want it and feel you need the help but you can do it on your own as well.

Will you join me in making the difference in the world that is possible?

Read here to see how...
