So Much Change!

I didn't think it would be this long before I communicated again. There has been so much change. My life and business is still in a state of flux with some things still to be revealed from above although the direction is to live in the moment as inspired.

I was moved to Florida to help open up Lakeland to become the first city of light to be the hub of Heaven on Earth to be an example to help other cities embrace the qualities of joy, peace, freedom, balance and abundance. Because of the resistance to the idea coming packaged as it was, God changed tactics. Rather than delay Heaven on Earth being more available to those who were ready to embrace it, he set a deadline.

On Monday, August 29, 2016 God asked me to remain home from my regularly scheduled yoga class to work with him instead. At 12:12, God said the 5D (fifth dimension) world split from the 3D (third dimension) world. Those who ascended to the Gates of Heaven while they were wide open, are now living in Heaven on Earth. Congratulations to all who made their ascension! Years ago I saw this would happen but had no idea when. The two dimensions split but the physical interaction would remain.

As God described it, the 3D world will be more like the movie, "Ground Hog Day". They will continue to live out of their past, fears and limiting beliefs still experiencing karma. The 3D world is run by man who have often been influenced by darkness. Of course, God owns and runs the entire world but he gave this world free will which gave the opportunity to all inhabitants to choose who to empower - man or God. The 5D world will become easier over time. It is a world run by God. God's way is easier than man's way of operating, including doing business. Therefore, the way we do business will change as we evolve and embrace the new qualities of this dimension. We are still learning what that will entail.

When I asked Jesus if people could continue to ascend, he said yes, because it is always something that occurs between them and God directly. The additional light that was pouring in to help all ascend while the gates were open made it much easier. I equate it to Amnesty when a group of people get a special opportunity. He said that the opportunity to ascend to Heaven on Earth right now, however, will be much harder giving me the example of someone carrying a backpack standing on one side of the Grand Canyon and wanting to make it to the other side. It is possible but more difficult.

Those who have made it may not realize it yet. There is still much change underway. This continues to be a time of transition. It is purposeful for those in 5D to let go of their old fears, limiting beliefs, programming and patterns so they can more easily benefit from the new qualities and opportunities that will be coming forth.

I personally was guided to do nothing but rest, heal, clear attachments to 3D and have fun. It is important to have fun. Archangel Michael said before, but is even more important now, "Play brings prosperity". Much of my time has been recalibrating and receiving new insights. 5D is a world of ease and fun brings more light and ease.

I started communicating more through our private group Help From Heaven because it is made up primarily of 5D people who are open to the new information. All are welcome there as everyone can ask questions, speak and share freely.

I am being prepared for more public work to both teach new information, as well as do more group healings. And, I am continuing right now to help my private clients ascend as well as have an easier life and more successful business now no matter which dimension they are in.

Wishing you a life of joy, peace, balance, freedom and abundance and a wonderful weekend and, all those affected by the Hurricane Matthew, a speedy recovery.

Faithfully yours,

Joy
