Are You With Us?

I have been struggling with what to communicate to you. There has been so much change and new information coming at us lately that I can barely keep up. There are a lot of differences and nuances in the Fifth Dimension (5D). New insights are being revealed almost daily. I have been guided to put together new programs and packages to assist in helping you reach the next level of experience possible.

At the end of last month, I was teaching about how we arrived at Heaven on Earth. I also learned a lot from you in what your needs and questions were. What we are trying to do now is effectively answer those questions. We are still in the mode of helping you let go of the 3D programming that is still holding most of you back. That is one of the reasons for the new monthly clearing calls God has asked me to facilitate for him with the team. Those details are below.

But, one of the challenges is getting the enrollment to have you actually join us in to experience Heaven on Earth fully. Most still aren't on board or accessing the benefits to the full extent. Some feedback caused us to realize that some are asking the age old question, "What is in it for me?"

When I explained the history of how we came to open up Heaven on Earth and all the work and clearing of the history of the negative experience and karma that went into it, someone responded with, "What is the point and where are you going with this?" Although that was an effort from darkness to undermine, the truth is this: not everyone realizes or believes the true benefit of Heaven on Earth. It can't be just about me trying to enroll everyone to join us in Heaven on Earth because I "get it". You really have to buy into it and want the benefit of it. I can't want it more for you than you want it for yourself.

The challenge is that you have to take effort to get there and it can't just be about my clearing for you to get there. I have helped open the opportunity and for many to ascend but now we need more of your participation. You have to want peace in the world, starting with your personal world. You either have to have a life of complete joy and abundance or really want to have that has your experience.

We have to get people over the programming that they need Jesus to get there. Some are feeling dependent on him being here before they will embrace the concept.

Some need to learn the christ consciousness that helps you get there and that it has nothing to do with being a Christian. It is a consciousness of purity of heart, love, kindness and forgiveness. Anyone can adopt those qualities without converting to Christianity. And, those who are Christian can certainly strive to the highest levels of those aspects within themselves.

Right now we are accessing the new data and rules and opportunities for Heaven on Earth and what is to come. You will be kept abreast as the new developments can be shared so stay tuned. But, in the interim, just keep letting go of your past to change your future!

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.

Faithfully yours,

Joy
