Officiating a Client Wedding

Last week I had the wonderful opportunity to share in the blessed occasion of officiating the wedding of one of my dear clients. It was an honor and a privilege to write and deliver a personal ceremony. This photo is me with the bride and groom and his family on the beach at Edgewater Beach Hotel in Naples, Florida. Dolphins even blessed us with their presence.

Because my work is over the phone, it is really a pleasure to spend time in person with my clients who I truly treasure and enjoy serving and knowing.

An advantage to being present, as well, gave me the opportunity to clear on the spot versus just clear an event in advance, which is usually all I have the chance to do.

I am grateful to call clients friends and friends clients and, in some cases, extended family.

Clear Your Past and Change Your Future Monthly Group Call

May 6 we will do our next monthly group clearing call. I am so pleased with some of the responses I have received such as, "I can't believe how tired I was after the call," which is only an indication that deep work occurred and much was being released. Or, "I could feel the energy moving through my body." and "I feel so much lighter." "I am so grateful."

Join us to let go of fears, limiting beliefs, blocks and barriers to having more joy, abundance and greater success. We will also clear issues with/as mothers.
