Were you conceived to lead? One of the target markets God asked me to serve to help heal and align, is leaders. So when asked to participate in this book project, I agreed. The more leaders are healed and aligned with God, the better their influence on the world.

Tomorrow "Conceived To Lead: Dismantling the Glass Ceiling Mindset" will launch. Each of us were invited to contribute to this book to provide insights on leadership. My chapter, "Leadership with Love" speaks to the dynamics of love at the basis of all business. And, as I say in the chapter, "When you lead from the heart while connected to and inspired by God, you lead people to what is infinitely possible for them."

The Kindle version will be available for just 99¢ and the paperback version will be out in just a few short weeks. Grab the digital version Saturday by going to: link here

And, when you purchase on the 30th, it helps us reach the best-seller status. Here's that link again (be sure to grab your copy Saturday, September 30 while the price is 99¢)

Today is St. Michael or Michaelmas Day

September 29 is considered St. Michael's Day or Michaelmas. Michaelmas (pronounced Mickel-mas) is a feast day celebrating the Archangels. It follows the fall Ember Days during which Christians traditionally thanked God for his creation and the bounty of the Earth and fasted penitentially. Michaelmas was a Holy Day of Obligation until the 18th century and honors St. Michael, St. Gabriel, and St. Raphael.

In Christian angelology, the Archangel Michael is the greatest of all the Archangels and is honored for defeating Satan in the war in Heaven. He is one of the principal angelic warriors, seen as a protector against the dark, and the administrator of cosmic intelligence. Michaelmas has also delineated time and seasons for secular purposes.

Rudolf Steiner considered it the second most important festival after Easter, Easter being about Christ ("He is laid in the grave and He has risen"). Michaelmas is about man once he finds Christ ("He is risen, therefore he can be laid in the grave"), meaning man finds the Christ (risen), therefore he will be safe in death (laid in the grave with confidence).

Rudolf Joseph Lorenz Steiner (27 (or 25) February 1861 - 30 March 1925) was an Austrian philosopher, social reformer, architect and esotericist. Steiner gained initial recognition at the end of the nineteenth century as a literary critic and published philosophical works including "The Archangel Michael", as pictured here.
