Are You Truly Free?

What does freedom mean to you?

Is it financial freedom? Freedom to come and go as you choose? Freedom to be, do and have as you like? Freedom from oppressive rules? Freedom from challenges?

Freedom reigns in this country as long as you believe and fight for freedom. It doesn't mean fight in the world such as war as often has been the method of the past. Times have changed. There is no reason to fight for freedom any longer as freedom comes from within your very being. Fight for freedom by taking a stand and committing to being an example of freedom. The fight will be the eternal one in standing up for your conviction to live in freedom and not succumb to your own tendencies. When you let go of war, you have freedom.

When you let go of struggle, you have freedom. When you let go of control, you have freedom. WHEN YOU LET GO, you have freedom. So rather than fight for freedom, learn to let go and live in freedom. As you express freedom in your world, your personal world, you will begin to allow others to do the same. Be the example of freedom. ~ Archangel Michael

In alignment with our Independence Day today, our special topic to heal this Saturday is freedom and the goal is to set you free from whatever holds you back, limits you, negatively affects you, etc. [Let go of your past and set yourself free.
