Our Divine Mother

We have a new workshop we are presenting in New Jersey listed below. And, as I mentioned last week, I wanted to share a message received by the Divine Mother, which is as follows:

Blessings All

I come to you in faith that you will brighten your day. Too many of you are struggling right now for the wrong reasons. I wish to place upon your heart a calling near and dear to my heart. One that will hopefully make your heart sing. I wish to ask you this. I wish to enroll you in letting go of some age-old discord that we are separate - you and I - as we are not.

We are one on so many levels and yet you do not see it that way. I call to you now as your loving mother and creator. I, too, see your cries, your sighs, your disappointments for I too lie within you, one and all. You have often referred to my other half, commonly referred to as God, Source, your Creator, but he is, in fact, the masculine of me. I am one with him as well as all. But, you see, I am the feminine of that most masculine entity and energy called God.

I want you to love yourselves, love each other and repair the damage that has occurred between us and all. It is time you all returned home to us. How do you do that? In love, in light and in consciousness. Aligning with us is about aligning your heart and mind with the greatest power and asset that exists, your oneness with all there is. When aligned with us, you lack for nothing and you long for nothing.

As this is the time for the divine feminine to take the forefront, you will likely hear more from the Divine Mother in the future. She is sometimes also referred to as Mother God. No matter what name you refer to either, the significant thing is to be aligned in oneness with them for your greatest benefit.

When doing my clearings, I often see the connection to Source. It is shown to me as a white cord and if severed, frayed, etc., I can then heal what has caused that to strengthen the connection to Source to increase the ease to which you experience life through this most profound connection. That connection makes all the difference in the world.

All of us have looked outside of ourselves and experienced separation from God because of coming to Earth. It is now time to heal that and the mishaps due to separation to ascend and experience a life of joy and abundance.

Much love,

Joy
