The Power of Creation

I was reflecting that for many of us, there's a feeling of being back at work after the summer dynamics seem to have officially ended with Labor Day.

I am enthusiastically sitting at my desk feeling good to be back at work in my office. I am fortunate to have the ability to work in a home office as well as enjoy a laptop lifestyle. As long as I have good internet and phone service, I can work anywhere in the world. This summer it gave me the opportunity to see many friends and clients, which was a gift to me and my pleasure. My only regret is not having been able to see everyone but it would have become a full-time job to coordinate it all as I did continue to work.

I usually work with clients over the phone on Tuesday and Thursdays so the other days provide some flexibility. It was nourishing to my soul to spend time with people I care about that also share history with me. I still need to carve out time to share the photos from my travels to New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, and Connecticut while up north on Facebook. But, some I will include here as there are historical and spiritual healing stories within them. But, that will be on the back burner while thinking of the next several months.

We now have until the end of the year to create the qualities and achievements we wish to experience and celebrate on New Years Eve.

You have the power of creation within you and when you seize that, the unrealized becomes more possible. All success is created within before it is demonstrated in the outer world.

So, here I sit creating the next few months to make them the most optimal and rewarding and fun to date. For me it's time to create a life of more balance as my calling has had me focus on many world issues rather than personal ones. I am looking forward to serving in a new way and a more balanced way. Afterall, I live in Heaven on Earth and it would be a bad example if I lived from a place of sacrifice. Sacrifice is not an expectation of life in Heaven on Earth. I don't have to wait for all to wake up for me to be aligning with that more solidly. You are all welcome to join me here. You have the power to create Heaven on Earth in your own life.

What can you shift in these next few months? Could you imagine if you worked out the kinks now, you could begin 2019 solidly in Heaven on Earth, where peace, joy, love, balance, freedom and abundance exists as a given. You have to step into the consciousness and qualities to be present and fully engage in those qualities of Heaven on Earth, however. It's up to you. You have the power to create the life you prefer. What do you prefer? Step into that powerfully. You truly lack for nothing with the Source of all within.

May you have the blessings provided by God, your greatest power within.

Much love,

Joy
