Why Clear Your Subconscious?

Your subconscious holds all memory from the beginning of time. Some of the memories from past lives get triggered due to experiences this lifetime. Fears may surface that stop you from proceeding and you may not even understand what is causing them or that they are even there.

When a client comes to me because they want greater success in one or more areas of life, the first thing I do is tap into their subconscious to find out what might be blocking them. During a session, I actually can read someone's thoughts to determine the limited beliefs and fears they may be carrying. I don't always look at all the detail but am shown what is necessary to release to set my client free. Money and relationship issues are common and are often because of past-life situations and unreleased emotions still within.

I will use me as an example because I have worked on myself using the same techniques for years before becoming a spiritual healer for others. When Archangel Michael came to me and asked me to write his book, "Wisdom of the Guardian", I agreed and easily took his dictation. What I didn't realize at the time was how much memory I had from past lives of persecution that were holding me back. When it became apparent I was doing nothing with the book, I looked within and identified numerous past lives where I was maimed, murdered, or imprisoned. For obvious reasons, I did not want to repeat those experiences. This lifetime I preferred keeping my head on my shoulders. To do so, it seemed logical to not stick my neck out yet again.

But, it was purposeful to get the book in print to help others. Therefore, by clearing those previous lifetimes of persecution, I became more free and more effortlessly got the book published and began speaking about it.

Michael often has said over the years clearing persecution is a specialty. I think because I did it so often for myself but also for so many of my clients, who have largely been lightworkers or old souls with a mission who have blocks.

But, the subjects I clear aren't just persecution. Previous marriages and relationship challenges are also a big one. Most couples and families have a history together and by clearing the memories from the past, you can improve the current situation.

When you meet someone new to you in this life, your subconscious memory will be triggered by your previous lifetime when you knew them. One of the reasons we clear sales transactions in advance, is that if you killed someone in another lifetime you are now trying to sell to, they could possibly not buy from you now even if logical that they need what you sell. Obviously, not all sales transactions have that drama behind them. But, we don't know how you knew them or what your previous relationship was with them so good to clear to prevent unconscious blocks from preventing the sale from occurring.

The majority of the people we now know are recycled relationships with a new role and dynamic this go around.

There are countless applications for clearing the subconscious either in preparation or an upcoming event or because there is a limitation of sorts. We don't always have to understand the full dynamics of the stories but by clearing the negative memories, limited beliefs and fears that come from them, we are set free to experience a better outcome.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.

Blessings,
Joy
