Joyful News - November 7, 2018

Yesterday was my birthday and it made me think of a couple of things that relate to anyone's birth.

First, your birthday is significant not only to your family in the physical but also to your inner family. As previously mentioned, it was your high self that wanted to be born at this time, which is why you were created and are here.

So, I actually thought to celebrate with my high selves this lifetime, Archangels Michael and Faith. Have you figured out who your high self is? Once you figure out who yours is specifically, you can engage with them in a whole new way and it really makes things fun, interesting and useful.

The high self is part of our spiritual healing sessions and have come through with beneficial information to assist the client moving forward. They are leading and guiding you and often have the answers you seek.

When I checked in with mine last night, I received a message from them that I posted on my blog because it also speaks to the significance of the person having been created. It also adds some dynamics to this period of time that affects all. You are important to your high self because otherwise they cannot operate on the planet at this time without you. If you care to read Archangel Michael and Faith's perspective, go to this link.

I thought next week we could discuss more about your actual physical birth and how it may be influencing you even now. Until then...

Wishing you a blessed and joyous day.

Much love,

Joy
