Joyful News - January 23, 2019

The Government Shutdown

One of my clients was concerned with the government shutdown hired me to focus on addressing the subject. We cleared the behind-the-scenes darkness pulling the strings in the background. We cleared the darkness from within the branches of the government. We cleared the Capitol, the underground tunnel and subway, the art and the people depicted of their darkness.

Clearing the negativity, darkness, programming and patterns within this government is not a one session type of activity.

One of the things we include in our monthly group clearing call is clearing with our respective governments. We are constantly removing darkness from within it. Ego, arrogance, anger, judgment, etc. are all opportunities to allow it in and enhance those energies. So, it would have to be done regularly to keep things as clear as we can in the limited attention we give it each month.

Have you ever wondered what past lives you have had in this country? Could you have had a leadership position in the past? Were you part of the founding fathers, revolution, civil war, or part of any state government in a past life? Some of those lifetimes are revealed in private sessions. But, in group sessions, we don't identify them but can still clear them.

The government is also a reflection of the consciousness of the people it serves. It has unseen powers that are manipulating it but you are not without power. This country was founded on "We the people".

You have the opportunity both privately, and in this coming group call, to clear whatever dynamics within you can help heal the government and bring forth a new era with freedom to all.

The work now is always on the self first and foremost. Work on the self, and the collective benefits. It's time to turn this country and the world around. You can be part of the solution to both by joining us in the clearing February 2.

Magic happens when we take 100% responsibility for improving outcome. There are so many challenged right now with this government shutdown and the ripple effect from it may be felt for quite some time. This is an option Heaven supports to help. You can certainly choose to do on your own and change your own life to help all. It's no longer about the other guy. It's about how we can solve a problem together so all win. What comes off you, comes off the rest connected to the story. It is always a benefit to all.

If you do nothing more than pray for all the government that they see and choose the light, that will help. Forgive them for their errors and misguidance. Ask for forgiveness for whatever is within your subconscious that may contribute. Send them love and surrender our government to God so he can run the show. He works through me, you and them when allowed. No other power is as powerful as when the infinite can operate through you. Let's help it run through our government as well.

Blessings to you all.

Much love,

Joy
