Introduction by Joy Pedersen

After years of working with Archangel Michael clearing the cause of the karma created by the fallen angels, Holy Week, 2013 became the most significant point in our work together. That week we were divinely instructed to clear subjects martyrdom, oppression, suffering, the story of Adam and Eve and serpent energies. A new Tree of Life was provided and instructions for a very specific ceremony were provided which aligned the divine within and restored the balance between the divine masculine and divine feminine. Upon completion of that ceremony on March 30, 2013, I saw enormous light pouring onto the planet and heard Archangel Michael say, "Today is the first day of Heaven on Earth".

Message by Archangel Michael

Heaven on Earth has been long awaited. The opportunity to bring heaven on earth is upon us at this time. Daily, moment by moment, more of heaven seeps through the ethers to earth enlightening and enlivening the planet. Eventually the energies of heaven will emerge so brightly that you will experience Heaven on Earth as a way of being and perceiving. It will be a glorious time for us all.

The time has come for all to gather to bring forth Heaven on Earth. To those of you who are still skeptical or wondering what that means, please let me elaborate.

First, you all are Heaven on Earth. You have come forth this lifetime to bring forth the energies of Heaven opening up the hearts and minds of your fellow human beings so they can experience what you already know in your heart of hearts.

Heaven is another dimension not too far off from yours. Your dimension and ours are merging. The veil between where we lie and you is diminishing. More and more of you will be able to engage with us on a regular basis. What Joy does now will not be that unusual in the future for anyone who is open and receptive.

By bringing forth the energies of heaven, we can engage more with all of you and assist you in many more profound ways than ever before.

We can interact more readily and provide the answers you seek.

As the new world is brought forth, there will be many questions. You will be given many of the answers before the general public. By bringing forth these committees and councils, we are engaging your help in assisting humanity to move forward at this time.

There will be new ways of doing business in the future. There will be many more resources available that once were limited in nature. New technologies are being created and developed to assist the human race in their development.

Mark my words when I say this. The world will never be the same again!

You are being readied for new roles going forward. Business will be done in new ways and with integrity. There will no longer be the win/lose mentality or the way of manipulation. That will not be tolerated. It will be right or it won't be. It isn't that mistakes aren't to be tolerated. It is the intention behind the error that is key here.

The time of dark forces having control and running rampant over the outcomes of others must cease.

Your energies combined in an inner knowing of what is to come alone helps. You are at this time holding the energies for the enlightened beings in these respective areas. Each of you are being called forth because of your respective blueprints. Be aware that although you are chosen, you still have free will as to whether or not you continue to walk forward in this path.

Although Joy would love to be able to spell everything out for you and what is expected, she cannot as no one is privy as to what is to come at this point. We are readying certain endeavors and they need to be laid out first. Things need to be grounded in this dimension first before giving any specific guidance.

You each have within you the capability to ascertain your own guidance as to your specific goal or role within the dynamics of your specific council. Your work and life to date has lead you to be able to fulfill your destiny this lifetime. You have been readied for this role. You may innately feel drawn to a particular outcome you would like to see unfold within the world.

Archangel Michael

Personal Invitation from Heaven

Please join me in help to further the awareness of Heaven on Earth. I, Archangel Michael, bring forth this personal invitation to you. This heartfelt invitation comes forth knowing the hearts and minds of those who will be reading this invitation. There will be much doubt and concern because this is not of the expectations of most. Things aren't always what they seem.

You have been chosen to be here to help this cause. By bringing forth Heaven on Earth, you bring forth peace on Earth. There is much light in the world and much darkness left to be cleared. By letting go of your fear, you provide an opening for those you council to become fearless. You cannot have fear and peace. They do not operate in the same space.

Go into your heart and know this truth. That is where God resides. That is where you find peace. Allow God to come forth from within and help you embrace this cause. Assist him in this most purposeful endeavor by allowing him to work through you at this time to help release your fear so together you can help those whom you serve to release theirs. For when you have released the fear within, you can have peace within.

This grassroots effort will be a shining example of how to bring forth peace on Earth beginning by expressing Heaven on Earth.

What is the experience of Heaven on Earth? It is a place without fear, judgment, and oppression. It is a demonstration of love, joy, peace, balance, freedom and abundance for all.

Would you like to experience these possibilities? If so, then please join me now for this new and bright beginning for all.

May peace be with you,

Michael, the Archangel

Much upheaval will take place before the final shift occurs. Fear will abound only to be released. It needs to come before it can come off. People don't realize how insidious it really is. That fear needs to be released to bring forth the end result we see for the planet. Once the inhabitants get on board with the idea of changing the world, they will engage more fervently in this cause of ours to enroll their help.

We want people to engage in free-will choice. We want them to want Heaven on Earth. We want them to be open and receptive to us and it. There are so many false ideas of what this really means to people. We are enrolling you to change the world. We want people to begin meeting God half way.

As more and more people begin engaging in the belief that they have a choice and that they can make a difference, they will more readily enroll in this cause. We want to have them want it enough to help us transition the rest of the planet. By joining forces with God, instead of against God, they will affect change much faster.

This is a campaign to get people to take responsibility for the outcome of their experience of the world. We want this grassroots effort to reach out into the world

There are councils being created to disseminate certain information as well specific energies. You can deliver our insights to the world in a way we cannot. You can reach the masses in ways we cannot. We now want to address this change from both the physical as well as spiritual aspects taking into consideration that when you address from both angles you sometimes affect change even faster.

We want people to become engaged in their lives, feeling empowered to make a difference. For too long that power was usurped. Rather than enable, we want to empower humanity to take the necessary action to affect change. When we empower them to make that difference, the difference is far greater than had we done it for them. We learned that from the last time we relied on miracles to affect change. It caused people to become complacent and feel dependent on a miracle happening to them rather than through them.

People have given their power away far too long. That choice to give their power away has been a major component in their undoing. Had they not been so willing to give their power away, the darkness would not have been able to have such a stronghold.

Heaven on Earth

Heaven on Earth, the Golden Age - there are many terms and perspectives for that which is to come. I will tell you this - regardless of the term and/or perspective, it will be a wonderful shift and development for all humanity. It hasn't come without much blood, sweat and tears. I must say the work that has gone on to bring this about has gone on for a millennia and has been harrowing at times. But we have succeeded in that which we have planned thus far.

The time has come for great shifts in consciousness. People will be aware of who they really they are and that they are part of a whole and something greater than themselves. As that awareness begins to grow, the increase of light will enhance the outcomes for all ultimately. As each twinkling of light increases, masses can be affected.

There is a concept here on Earth that nothing matters. That is not true. Everything matters. Every thought, feeling and action matters. Nothing should be discounted. No one should assume that what they think, feel and do won't matter. Some worry their feelings aren't important to someone in particular. The truth of the matter is that everyone's feelings matter to the whole. Once people begin to realize that, they will begin to treat themselves as well as others better. They will begin to see for themselves that their thoughts, feelings and actions should be taken into greater consideration so they make wiser decisions as to how they manage and relate to those thoughts, feelings and actions.

As each day passes, more and more light is flooding the planet. That light is opening up passage ways to possibility. That possibility is increasing daily. New ideas are coming forth out of that light creating new opportunities to serve the planet as a whole. Every idea over time will be for the greater good of all.

The ideas that have been supporting your planet as of late are of lack, limitation, greed, narrow mindedness, control, manipulation and fear. The ideas that come from those states of consciousness do not serve the whole. When you move from the consciousness as mentioned here to the consciousness mentioned above, you begin to evolve into a planet of serve for all rather than service of the self. You no longer think selfishly from a place of lack and fear, but from a place that serves you without diminishing another.

Each effort to bring forth this new consciousness will develop into a greater sense of worth for all. That will embrace the outcomes affecting all. Each will begin taking better care of themselves and others. They will begin looking at long-term results rather than survival alone.

There will be more gladness of heart and that happiness grows and expands into a prosperous mentality that embraces change and receptivity.

There will be peace and abundance for all who embrace it. It first starts from within. All work starts from within. All goals are achieved within before they are achieved in the outer world of which we speak. The work begins on self and as the self expands and ascends, the planet and its people will become new and renewed.

Star of David

As of December 2015, the Star of David appeared in the sky. It will continue to remain there. The Star of David is the symbol for Heaven and Earth together.

Dark Forces

For eons, people have suffered at the hands of darkness operating at their beck and call as they have placed their wants and needs upon the people of this Earth. They have wanted and successfully manipulated humanity for their purposes. They have been pulling the strings of your governments, schools, hospitals, institutions, corporations and religious bodies far too long.

We have not stood by and allowed this to happen as you might think. We have been plotting and planning to overtake this darkness since its inception. It has maligned God and taken away his power as well as yours because it separated you from knowing who you truly were.

The problems experienced in the world at this time are due to darkness to no exception. If you had known the truth, nothing of this sort would have been possible. But, you were lied to from the beginning and manipulated from the tricks of darkness placed upon you.

The cause of these sinister acts have now been cleared from the planet. No longer are their willful ways able to penetrate and affect you as they were able to before. The problem now lies in clearing the misrepresentation of information that has permeated your books and institutions furthering the dark forces' intent to confuse and malign the truths of nature.

We are here today standing before you at this time as rebels against the darkness and wanting to heal the wounds they have inflicted upon you. There have been many. You have suffered long enough in the darkness and we want to bring you forth into the light so you can see and hear for yourselves what the truth is that God wishes to convey to you at this time.

God has the utmost respect and care for you and from this day forward has the opportunity to serve your highest and best needs without darkness further maligning him, you or the truth. It is up to you, however, to let go of that which has bound you to darkness and the betrayal it put forth in tricking you into succumbing to their dark ways and measures. They have harmed you long enough and it is we who wish to set you free at this time so you can enjoy that which you deserve and desire.

Council of Glory

The dark forces you now see displayed across the world are remnants of the past. That is the last vestiges of the old programming left to be cleared and released.

Middle East

Those that are fighting in the Middle East are holding onto the old and outmoded issues which have plagued them for seems like an eternity. They are resistant to letting go of the past. That will be their undoing not yours. Do not be alarmed as things in the Middle East will get worse before they get better. They will not lay down their swords easily. They never have; they never will.

Rapture

Creating this fear does not serve God. God is not about creating fear so that people follow him. God is about showing the benefits to aligning with him. When you are aligned with God, all things are possible. If you are not aligned with God, you are separate. It is within those moments of separation from God that problems occur.

The problem humanity has suffered from for so long has been their separation from source. The source of all things, including them is not trying to hold them hostage. It is not necessary. God does not need to prove anything. God is just that, God. He is the creator of all there is. He does not need anyone to follow him. He is just fine the way things are. He does not, however, like to see his children suffer, which they so often do. They suffer due to their separation from him. They suffer due a lack of understanding of him. They suffer because they are not connected to the love and support he can provide when one with him.

He sees your pain as well as the pain of all who suffer. The only suffering that occurs is the suffering of separation from source. When connected and one with God, all is possible. The problem that exists is all the ideas that cause separation from God. All fear-based instruction causes a separation from God because it causes fear. Fear is not of God. When someone tells someone else to fear God, they are causing separation from God. Why would anyone align themselves with someone they are to fear? Only to preserve their life and/or soul? Intellectually yes, that is possible. What is not possible, however, is to align with God on the soul level in that state because the fear itself causes separation.

The people of this land have caused much separation from God. Over time that separation has increased because God became less real than ever before. God has been fictionalized. God has been terrorized.

The God I know is one of love and support. He stands by my side through thick and thin. He is there for me every step of the way with council and guidance. His love and support are boundless. Why then would I be afraid of him? No reason. I have not been given reason to run from God. I have not been given reason to separate from God. I am aligned with God at my very core as should you be if you know what is good for you.

Being aligned with God at your core provides infinite opportunity. The grace God provides is beyond the imaginable. But you will never know that if you fear him. You cannot connect on a deep level with someone you fear. How can you create intimacy with someone you fear? It really isn't possible. God knows your heart. But can you know God if you are too fearful to let him in and get to know him?

A personal relationship with God is very different than knowing God through scripture. Scripture is material that is written by someone else. Knowing God is having a personal relationship with him without barrier and without third party.

You do not need third party to know God. You do not need me to know God. You do not need anyone but God to know God. God is willing and waiting for you. You do not have to do anything specific to connect to God. Your intention is enough. Your desire is enough. All you have to do is ask God to connect with you and to be one with you. There is no magic in connecting to the source who created you. You are a part of him already. He is a part of you already. The only separation is misperception.

He belongs to you and you belong to him.

The reason you are frightened of him is that he was created to become this mystical figure who stands outside of you passing judgment on you for the wrongs you commit. The only wrong you commit is separating from the Source that loves you so. If you knew the most powerful being in the world lied within you ready, willing and able to give you anything you needed and guide you to what was best for you and love you unconditionally, why would you look elsewhere? Wouldn't you go within for all that could provide?

But no. You insist on going outside of yourself because of something written by someone you have not even met. If you want to know the truth, you will have to do as the rest of us do and go inside to get it. The truth lies within you. You access the Creator from within you. The mystery is that you have been looking outside of yourself for all that lies within you. Isn't it time to get your directions straight? Go to the source itself. Go where you access the source - within your own heart - for that is where you find him.

This is not follow the yellow brick road and experience all sorts of mishaps along the way until you finally figure out there is no place like home. You can take that route if you'd like to or you can just go within where you find God now. And, stay connected with the Source that loves you beyond measure. There is no place like home. There is no love like the love of God.

I will see you there when you get there.

Jesus

Timing

We have long awaited this moment. It doesn't come a moment too soon for all our preferences but all must be done correctly. There has been much preparation for eons of time going on to bring about this great change. People are wanting God to do something dramatic like the parting of the Red Sea. This will be even more dramatic but less noticeable as an event. It is something that will occur over time that is more complete and fulfilling. It will be comprehensive as it encompasses the whole universe and not just the Red Sea.

Message from God

We wish to educate humanity on a new way of doing business, a new way of living and being and introduce them to new possibilities that await them should they align themselves with me. Many will wake up to the idea that YES, THERE MUST BE A GOD AFTER ALL!

Everyone has free-will choice to show up in the world playing full out as a representative of me and the power that lies within them because of me. It is each one's opportunity to choose me or not and allow me to work through them.

Divine Destiny

People need understand not only divine destiny but their role in it. They must understand that the end results and timing largely depends on them and their willingness to open their hearts and minds and accept these truths and take necessary action accordingly.

God can work through you and others who are willing conduits to lay out the future dynamics of Heaven on Earth.

God on the Future of Business

The future of business is not about you doing. It will be about you being. My way of doing business is not the way you have been used to so far. You will find dramatic differences in the way I do business versus the way humanity does business.

I recommend letting go of your attachments to the way humanity has done business so far. The way humanity has done business has limited its ability to create divinely and what is divinely possible.

Humanity's way of doing business is based on limited thinking, lack, greed, control, manipulation. It has not been created in balance.

The imbalances that humanity has created in their way of doing business has been the undoing of this country. It was never intended for this country to be built on greed, lack and limitation. The foundation of this country was to be built on freedom and equity for all. It has been its undoing when humanity has decided that its way is better than the divine way. The divine way takes all into consideration and it is done with ease and grace. The way of doing business so far has been built on a flimsy, if not destructive foundation, and it would be easier my way. But, everyone is so attached to their way of doing things and the way things have been set up. They don't even recognize what is possible because it hasn't been possible before.

When you do things humanity's way, you lose what is possible. What is possible is so much more extraordinary than you would ever imagine.

When you engage in my way of doing business, you will find it's a little disconcerting at first because it's not what you're used to because what you're used to is working hard. What you're used to is thinking. Neither are necessary. So you have to give that up. Give up all attachments to working hard and thinking about what it is that you need to do.

All you need to do is ask me. Ask, do, ask, do and when you are told what to do, you may be told it's time to rest now. So rest. If you are told to take a walk now, take a walk. It isn't about being a slave to your desk, your laptop or phone. These are wonderful modern conveniences you have in this electronic age that are supposed to serve you; you are not to serve them.

Humanity's way of doing business today has enslaved you to technology, to the desk, and to a business. People are to no longer be enslaved by anyone or anything. Herein I state one of the dictates of this new world. No one is to be enslaved by an idea, by a person, by a tradition, by anyone, or by anything. No one is to be enslaved. To do so, would be causing grave harm. It is not for you or anyone to cause harm.

This world is to be built on freedom. Business is to be built within the context of freedom. No business will thrive if they are enslaving their employees going forward. People are not to be enslaved. There will be a new world order and I can assure you, you will enjoy this new method and order. It is not based on control and manipulation, threats and enslavement as is your current corporate marketplace.

It will be built on freedom, fairness, balance, integrity and love.

Love must be at the core of all business. Why do I say love? Because I am love. That is who I am. I am love. When you are aligned with me, you are in love. When you love your work, you are aligned with me and it becomes an easy workflow. Deadlines are met much easier. All the resources you require will be at your fingertips. You will lack for nothing. You will enjoy what you do and want to do more of it but you will be guided as to when to work and when not to, when to play and when not to.

You will be in divine rhythm. When you are in divine rhythm, others fall into divine rhythm. The more that allow divine rhythm to unfold, the more divine rhythm permeates all operations. When you create out of a state of love aligned with the divine within, the source of all, you have all that it takes to be successful because by aligning with the divine within, you are successful. You cannot be anymore successful than that. That is success. That is completeness. That is wholeness. That provides you access to all that exists in the universe. What more would you need than that? And that my friend is your future.
