Moving Magic

It's been an interesting journey since my mission to Lakeland ended and I was guided to move out of the area. But, to where? The last couple of years were part mission/part search/part healing.

After years dedicated to clearing evil and darkness, I am sure you can imagine it can take a toll on the body, mind and spirit. Phase One ended where we were focused on the causal level of the challenges humanity faced. Although there is effort to heal the causal level for the individual, my global effort was more complete. Heaven used that time to get me away, heal and regroup as well as explore other areas.

God has taken me off of global duty for the time being so I could move. The move has been quite unique as we are not only moving me personally but the move includes the headquarters of Heaven on Earth.

I recall when Archangel Michael came to me announcing that I was him incarnate and my friend, who is clairvoyant, mentioned seeing certain things during a ceremony he had including him placing a sign above my balcony stating "Headquarters of Archangel Michael".

When I was guided to move to Lakeland, another clairvoyant came to visit and she told me about a sign she saw over the door stating Heaven on Earth Headquarters. Now, we are relocating those headquarters to Sarasota, Florida.

God assigned certain individuals to assist. Ashtar, Commander of the Galactic Federation, was in charge of my last move and now again this one. I was guided to ask him for guidance as to certain aspects of the move such as movers, etc. and whatever assistance required. God told me he assigned Lakshmi, who is a goddess who assists in space clearing and abundance, for assistance in purging. I did not call upon her enough unfortunately. Archangel Metatron was recommended for packing and storing items. They and others of my heavenly team were helpful in other ways as well.

I was told there was a place picked out for me in Sarasota and when searching the internet, resonated with the place, similar to as I found the place here in Lakeland. It was divinely guided. As with the place in Lakeland, the number is also 10-101. The big difference in this move is that I have been to Sarasota before and I saw the place in advance. I took the place in Lakeland before setting foot the first time in Lakeland. I am happy I know and am looking forward to the new city, which is much closer to the beach!!!! And, the sand is made of crystal quartz. It's just beautiful.

So, now in the middle of purging, packing and preparing, I send out this newsletter with my new address and phone number. I posted the image from my new email signature below. The address is in the footer of the newsletter.

I am grateful for the help from above as well as to the earthly contributors who felt called to assist me. I couldn't have done this alone. An interesting aside is that the high selves of all those helping are high beings of light such as ascended masters, archangels, apostles in another life, etc. They are not only dear friends but are part of this mission on Earth to bring forth the light and assist with Heaven on Earth. They certainly have been extraordinary help in assisting me personally.

I am not going to send out a newsletter next week as it will be a moving day. I will look forward to sharing what God inspires after I am moved and settle as things begin to change in service to all.

Blessings,

Joy
