Are You Asking for Help?

It is not news that you can ask God, the ascended masters or the angels for help. However, I have often heard people judge when or how often.

Consider this. God is within so he knows everything you think anyway. But, if you aren't asking him for help specifically, he will respect your choice to do things on your own. You have free will and all of Heaven respects your free will unless there is a life threatening situation and it isn't your time to go. Therefore, you must ask for help or they won't interfere.

The other thing to consider in these dynamics is that with God within, why would God want to experience a challenge. If you ask soon and often, the help is there and life is easier. The challenge is we block unconsciously block God rather than God denies us.

During this move, I asked for all sorts of things that were supplied within a day or two just by asking above. They would then inspire someone who would deliver the request or create the circumstances to solve the situation. But, I would also call in help for things you might not consider something possible.

Michael, as you would imagine, is my go-to-guy. So, if I have computer or technical challenges, I call upon him. Sometimes he has solved the problem, and at others directed me to physical technical help. A quick aside, clearing computers and technology helps it run smoother longer which is why I often clear equipment and technology for my regular private clients. I also recently asked Michael often for his protection when getting on a stool reaching heights where I could lose my balance. What I have found the most amazing is when I need lift furniture. When I ask Michael for help, I have been able to move heavy furniture that I would have otherwise think impossible.

A friend gave me this suggestion and it was to call upon Metatron for spacial things. So when storing or packing, you can usually get more into the space.

Before writing this newsletter, I asked Gabriel, as the messenger, if I should write on this subject.

There are angels who specialize on particular subjects so if you don't know what they are, getting an angel guide book is useful. Or, ask God and God can send the appropriate angel for assistance.

Years ago Isaiah came to me offering his help in business and Metatron has also been assigned to help me in business so those questions can go directly to them also. But, I still have a tendency to ask God who is the boss or Michael because he is my partner in this work.

The biggest takeaway I hope you have is that you can ask and ask often and the help is provided. It is your limited beliefs, fears and judgments that may be blocking receiving or recognizing their help, which we can always clear.

If you ask and it doesn't seem to come, ask again. Make sure you are as centered and balanced as possible and operating from the heart makes it easier to receive and recognize signs and direction. Follow the inspiration you receive. The answers may come in ways you don't recognize.

Live in the moment allowing them to work through you and also notice how they also will work through others to assist you.

Blessings,

Joy
