Are You Truly Free?

This country was founded on a desire to be set free from tyranny. The end of the world is about the world becoming free of darkness as it returns to the light. We are moving into the new golden age for all to be free.

You can move into the new golden age as soon as your vibration allows you to experience it.

The challenge lies in those holding onto the views and emotions of the past that recall those times of persecution, the world run by darkness and the negative effects of that. Those memories cause you to limit what is possible now. As the light increases, it is pushing up all the darkness within and without to be released. The faster everyone releases those lower memories and emotions, the sooner everything will change for all to benefit.

It is time for you to be set free from all shackles that have bound you. As the darkness is removed externally, you want to release it internally. That includes your memories of it. As you raise your vibration, you move into new realities able to experience the world in a whole new way. The challenge comes if you are dragging your past views and experiences with you. They color your current and possible results.

Our goal is to help set you free from all limitations whether they are beliefs or emotions.

The higher you vibrate, the better experiences and opportunities you more effortlessly attract to you.

If you are having trouble experiencing a life of freedom, join us July 6 where we do in a group setting by phone. This call includes setting you and your government free from darkness, limited beliefs and emotions.

How to enhance freedom:

- Notice where you don't feel free
- What can you change in thought or action to change where you have felt limited?
- What choice can you make that supports a reality that you are actually are free?
- What action can you take that supports feeling free?

Tip:

"If you are not forgiving yourself or others for something, you are not truly free."

~ Archangel Gabriel
