Healing 9/11

There are two days I distinctly remember. The first was September 11, 2001 when life was disrupted by the course of events taking place across the river in New York when the twin towers were destroyed.

The second was January 2, 2017 when I was guided to visit the memorial in their place. I had relocated to Florida in 2013 but this was the first time I went since that fateful day. This is the image I took in January when visiting the memorial. It was a divinely guided day and once there, realized my heavenly colleagues, who accompanied me, opened a portal to Heaven. At that time approximately 1800 earthbound spirits were released.

Many times tragedies that occur are such a shock to someone's system that a part of them is left behind. There were people that met their demise that tragic 9/11 as well as others who were gathered up to be able to move into the light and move onto Heaven. That day was a big healing for them.

Healing still needs to occur for many who suffered loss that day. The more who are able to forgive the horrific situation, all involved, as well as the cause and effect, the more God can work through them and the situation to fully heal them and it. The energy and emotions still within can become triggers and limitations that block life being fully appreciated and fulfilled. Forgiveness must occur from within the heart to be most effective. The more who can forgive, the more who can be set free, including the self.

Wishing you forgiveness of all tragedy and loss....

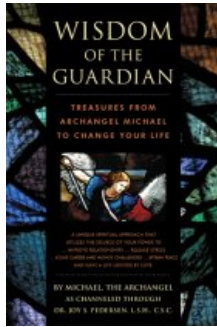

Blessings,

Joy
