Peace in the Middle East

My recent blog post highlights a message from God that discusses peace in the Middle East. He came through after watching the news with his comments. You can click through here to read that post.

I must thank a client who was concerned about the situation with Turkey. She felt compelled to hire me to begin addressing the situation there through spiritual healing. That opportunity allows God to work through me to address what we include within the session devoted to that subject. As mentioned last week, my contact page includes a link to those who have issues they desire addressed in the world of a global nature. That link is here if you should like something healed. Of course, when donating, please write separately to share the dynamic you wish addressed. Otherwise, the funds will support clearing what is divinely guided. Each session is divinely guided as a rule. However, the specific concerns someone has can create the overall theme.

The current blog post came to be to a degree because of this client's preference to help a particular situation.

If you are interested in donating to that cause, I have created a link on my contact page for Paypal. For every $500 collected, the work begins.

People also contribute to the world as a whole by clearing their own connections to the world throughout all time and space in our monthly group calls. Our next one will be November 2 where we clear an extensive list of personal concerns. Also, we will be addressing blocks to focus as well to choosing negative versus positive thoughts and outcomes from a subconscious sabotaging place. Those details are below.
