Joyful News - November 27, 2019

NOTE: You can manipulate the size of the type on your mobile devices with your fingers to make type font larger if you have trouble reading.

I am in such gratitude right now for so many blessings. First and foremost in light of this newsletter community, I am grateful to you for your presence and engagement.

I am also grateful to you for working on yourselves, for wanting a better world, and for your contribution to make that happen.

You are showing up in the world because it is purposeful. You are doing the best you can. You are doing all you can within the circumstances you are experiencing the world.

Acknowledge yourself for being here, and all that is, and all that you have created. You are here because you chose to be here. Be grateful for your choices and what that has demonstrated in your life. Even what is perceived negative can have a positive if you embrace those perspectives.

I am personally grateful to God, the Divine Mother, and all the archangels, angels and ascended masters who are an integral part of my life. They support me personally and they support those of you who participate on our private calls as well as our monthly group calls. They are also there supporting you in likely many ways you do not realize.

I am also grateful for the personal team and family on the other side supporting me and these efforts. You have your own team and family on the other side supporting your daily efforts.

I am grateful to my spiritual family on earth who are part of the bigger picture supporting me personally as well as the world as a whole.

I am grateful to my clients who are so wonderful to work with that every consultation is a blessing to hold. Your effort to improve outcomes for yourselves, your families and businesses, is extraordinary.

To all of you who show up month after month for our group calls, I am grateful to your commitment to make a difference on yourselves, your family as well as the world as these calls address all.

I am grateful to having moved to a city I love and having met wonderful new friends here and am still grateful to all those who helped get me here. I am equally grateful to those who welcomed me here and help me acclimate as well as enjoy the new surroundings and possibilities.

I am grateful to see so much less darkness in the world. Having been working behind the scenes on that specialty, I can assure you what you are evidencing is only the last to be released. It is what is coming to the surface to be released. But, the behind the scenes activities have lessened dramatically.

I am also grateful to see so many more people waking up and realizing their own magnificence and the true nature of the world that has existed beneath the surface to many until now.

I am very appreciative of all the lightworkers who are awakening and stepping up and into their callings. Even if they are awake, they bring more light. If they step into their calling, they are helping rebalance the world quicker. And, for that, we should all be grateful.

I am grateful to all of you who participate in our Help from Heaven group on Facebook. You are a most treasured engagement.

For all of you who have bought my books, thank you. And, to those who have taken the time to leave a review, I so appreciate it. Those reviews make a bigger difference than you may realize.

I am also grateful to all of you who have referred business to me or who have given my sessions to your friends and family as gifts. That generosity serves more than just the benefit to me. All who do this work benefit themselves, family and others connected to their histories as well as the All.

To those of you who have donated to healing the global issues, the planet and the economy, thank you from not only me but on behalf of all.

I will close with gratitude to all of you who have contributed to me in any way over the year(s). Bless you all.
