Joyful News - December 4, 2019

Are You Fully Open to Receiving Everything You Want?

As I was watching one of the Hallmark movies, "Christmas Joy", I was thinking of the challenges I'm seeing that people have of receiving. Are you fully open to receiving? Do you even know if you are?

- Have you ever received an inspiration that you didn't follow through on?
- Have you ever met someone who you judged inappropriate because of past programming?
- Have you prayed for something but didn't recognize the opportunity when it showed up?
- Have you underlying fears blocking receiving what you truly want?

God came through with this message to help you understand certain dynamics that affect your receiving. There is so much abundance in the world that you certainly should have your share and what makes you happy. I hope this teaching helps.

Many of you believe that I do not give to you what you ask. That is not the case. What is so is that often you cannot receive that which I give to you. I give to you most willingly as your happiness is what I desire for you.

If you ask for what is not for your highest good, I will give that to you. If you ask for what is for your highest good for you, I give that to you as well.

The problem often lies in what you can accept. If you want one thing but only can accept something else, you will get what you can accept. I do not deny you anything.

It is your thoughts and beliefs with emotion that dictate your abilities to receive.

Your beliefs in me sometimes also dictate your results. If, for example, you pray to me for a result but don't believe I will give it to you, that will affect the result. If you believe I only will give you what matters on a larger scale that will negate your results as well. I don't care if it is a large or small mattered item or situation. You can have what you believe you can receive.

I don't sit back and dictate I want you to have one thing and not another unless it is for your highest good. That is where some delays in receiving come in. If you aren't ready to receive in the highest manner, then sometimes a lesson in between helps align you with your greater good. It is not about me punishing you - EVER!

Your subconscious belief in me being a punishing God, however, will impact your results.

There are so many nuances when it comes to receiving. Your beliefs, however, are the biggest element. Work on your beliefs and your outcomes will change dramatically.

On Saturday we will receive further teachings from God on the special subjects highlighted for this week which include holiday celebrations and traditions, gift giving, expectations, travel over the holidays, the loss of loved ones experienced over the holidays, and end of year challenges, goals, etc. We cover a long list of items but these are the featured additional topics to assist you in elevating the rest of the year. God's teaching is always delivered to me before the event to be sent to you after the event.

Our goal is to always help you get what you want in life with more ease. Email me if you want me help releasing any of your internal blocks to receiving. Or...
