Are You Evidencing the Truth?

Many are witnessing, as well as feeling, certain dynamics and suspecting the cause is one thing but it may be something very different. Underlying causes and contributing factors are rampant these days. This time of tribulation is bringing up old issues, past lives, unhealed emotions, ancestral and cultural programming, and karma to be released. Blame has become common place. Many think they know what is causing the problems but likely not seeing past the obvious.

This is a reminder that you may be victimized by your own past, as listed above, or that of someone else's. You are all seeing and interpreting information from your filters and from where you vibrate. Unless you are clear within and operating from the highest vibratory rate, your information could be very different than that of someone else you know or follow.

The time is to go within and look at the cause of the triggers rather than pointing fingers at others. Unless you do that, you will continue to carry forward that which is unhealed.

You, the person or situation you are dealing with may also have darkness influencing the cause and effect of behaviors and beliefs. Clearing away that darkness to see things clearly is sometimes challenging for the average person if not schooled in it. However, being aware that darkness may be influencing those who you are dealing with, and trying to separate the person from the darkness, is often useful.

It is always useful to ask, "What is within me that such and such is showing up this way or causing me to react this way?" Following that with the ho'oponopono phrases, "I am sorry; please forgive me; thank you; I love you" will help lift the cause of the situation. Surrendering the negative situation or feelings to God in the moment is also optimal.

Reach out if you still think there's darkness to be cleared or you can't release that which is at issue. I'm always happy to help. In the interim, may you and yours find peace.

Wishing you the truth as well as tolerance...

Blessings,

Joy
