Money Issues

This upcoming monthly call is to clear the cause of money issues. There are so many contributing factors to challenges relating to money. This week I wanted to highlight a particular aspect relating to men and money as well as share a couple of insights and recommendations.

As mentioned in last week's newsletter, that morning during a spiritual healing session, I channelled my client's father from another life. He shared some significant information on men and money. I am sharing that audio here. You can hear his emotions near the end. I often feel the emotions of relatives that come through or even the client's own past life emotions. Ancestors and others come through in our sessions when applicable with messages. They also benefit from the clearing we do at that time. It's always informative to get their perspective on life especially once on the other side.

As I have been clearing money as a global healer and within sessions for decades now, it is delightful to see the clearings shift. It's too complicated to elaborate here but I can see the behind-the-scenes shifts occurred. It has also been delightful to hear of the potential shifts in the money system that have been prophesied coming closer to fruition. The upcoming clearing on money will help release participant's own karma, ancestral and cultural programming on money. As we move into the new golden age, no one should experience lack unless it is within their personal programming. Now, is the time to release that programming so you have more ease.

- At this time, all need to release what is imbalanced within regarding money.
- By clearing it within, you change how it shows up and is experienced in the outer. The connection to Source is always paramount as God is the source of money and all else are the avenues.
- This is the time that all need to be going within to know what is purposeful regarding making, spending and investing money. Are you making your choices based on man's way of thinking or God's?

This is the time to go within for all things. We often address the connections to Source to make sure all clear with God to get accurate divine messaging. That we do most effectively in private sessions because then I can look at the connection directly to heal it. But, we also include an aspect of that in our monthly call.

Wishing you and yours financial freedom...

Blessings,

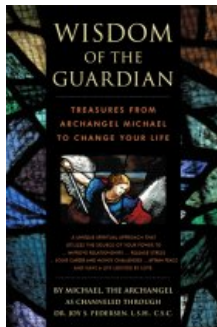

Joy
