

Joyful News - April 8, 2020

I was thinking of the concept of power after a particular global healing session last week.

Over the years, I have often done sessions with clients on power. We clear a variety of aspects of power including all lifetimes of having had positions of power. All lifetimes in leadership, or as a monarch, for example, usually come with a lot of karma to clear because of the influence of those positions. During those sessions, we also address times of misuse of power, feeling disempowered, fear of power, mistakes when in power, loss of power, being stripped of power, etc.

I remember one day when I cleared all aspects of power for myself and my next client following my own session on myself, asked if I have a new telephone system because I sounded so different. It was a reaction I will never forget. I definitely spoke with more authority.

Setting that idea of clearing all blocks to being and feeling empowered aside, I want to share my experience last week which was so humbling.

As some of you know, I have a specialty of clearing darkness. While working with a colleague on some global matters, a demon appeared. So picture he and I against a big hairy monster for lack of a better description. He was taunting us. And, part of that effort tried to get us unnerved in the process. We were attempting to find out what his position and needs were.

I was inviting him to return to light saying we work for God and his some of the response was "I am more powerful than God" and "There are others more powerful than God as well".

I responded that this is between him and God. He said that my humility was disempowering. He said I was much more powerful than that. He was tempting me to take a stance of power. I told him I have no power at all except for the power of God within me working through me.

So rather than take the bait and take a stance in the power I do have within, I let it all go and turned all over to God without fear of any kind. The next thing I saw was the demon melting before my eyes. He was shocked and couldn't believe what just happened to him. It reminded me of the "Wizard of Oz" when the wicked witch of the east was melting away.

I was so humbled by that experience, because I couldn't have made that happen. It was only God through me that could possibly affect that kind of change. And, God made it so easy.

Could you imagine what is possible for God to accomplish if you allowed him to work through you? If everyone right now allowed God to work through them, could you imagine how the world would look? God always has the highest and best in mind for all but works through people. If you aren't allowing God to work through you, then you are limiting his potential in your life and the lives of others you can impact.

You may be more powerful than you believe true. Letting go of all the past history that diminishes your power is extremely useful. Negative memories, thoughts, emotions. and karma, hold back ascension.

But, surrendering your life and all activities to God, will bring you the greatest possible power in existence and there is nothing to match it.

God shared last week that the importance of surrender and connecting with him directly is so necessary right now that he has asked me to focus on helping people accomplish both. He said that the transition the world is going through right now and the crisis, in particular, will end sooner and go smoother when the masses have turned within to him.

If you aren't able to surrender as well as connect to God directly and get answers, I am happy to help you with that. And, those of you who can, by following God's guidance now, you can be lead and guided to what is most purposeful for you.

Wishing you true power within...

Blessings,

Joy
