Joyful News - May 6, 2020

This Is Time for Great Change

It's exciting and a privilege to work behind the scenes for God on helping to make great change in the world. I hope to begin sharing more of what I have been able to experience, as well as witness. There are other channels, however, who are often reporting the news of what happens behind the scenes. They may not realize I have anything to do with helping create the news but it is fun to read what they publish around the same time we have done work on those subjects. All who are allowing God to work through them are doing the job they are assigned to at this time. I am personally grateful to all those who have stepped up to do their respective callings.

Many people, however, are really at a crossroads these days. They have been so used to giving their power away and looking outside of themselves for answers.

This time of tribulation can end sooner than later by more people turning to Source within their own heart and aligning with the greatest power within.

I received this message from Heaven recently and I thought right in alignment with that guidance:

The time has come for great change. No one needs to be left in the dark albeit by their own choosing. We are here in mass to help all ascend. What is troubling is how few have faith and that faith is what will carry them up to where they can live a life of ease. By buying into the dark agenda and their teachings through media and those who are spokespersons for the dark agenda, they empower the darkness.

Rather, it would be more useful to empower the light side. Give your power over to God, Source, or the universal knowingness, whatever you choose to call Creator or the all powerful all that is. That being has dominion over all. But, people have by and large given their power over to the few who speak the loudest on Earth. They have given their sovereign being willingly to a world order that has been run by darkness.

It is now time to take back their own power and the power of God that lies within their very heart and soul. People have allowed those in power to have power over them because they felt powerless within. When you are aligned with the greatest power within, how could you lack power?

Surrender your hearts and souls to the greatest power that exists and exists within you to be lead and guided out of this hell you have placed yourself within. You have the power to choose. You have the power to live - truly live. Live the life of a sovereign being you have been created to be. Don't succumb to the powers that present as such when no one, and I mean no one, is more powerful than the God that lives within your own heart.

Choose wisely my friends as your life depends on it.

I realize that last line might feel a bit threatening. But, since you are responsible for your life and how it turns out, it is true. The quality of your life always depends on you. You can skate through it with us in 5D. God is the one who helps you to be able to skate through life with ease.

I don't think people actually realize how they have been programmed to support the darkness. We have been trained that way for eons.

As I mentioned last week, "Wisdom of the Guardian" has useful instruction. It also has specific clearings in the back. And, a blessing is that Archangel Michael is with you when you read the book so you can bask in his energies as well as ask him directly for specific guidance at the time you need it.

May you experience peace beyond all understanding...

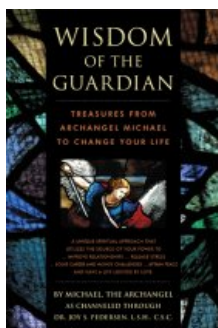

Love,

Joy

PS: Don't forget to join in our Facebook group, Help from Heaven, for further discussion. However, I won't likely be communicating much in the next five days.
