Joyful News - June 3, 2020

Addressing the Global Unrest

We have been working behind the scenes for a long time on the causal level of the problems negatively affecting humanity. The good news is major shifts have occurred on the spiritual level. All must change on the spiritual and causal level before becoming noticeable and experienced on the physical. Over the years, many have questioned how could the cause of darkness be removed considering what people are witnessing. I would like to address that here.

Removing the cause is one thing. The effects can be far reaching. Those effects come with enormous programming and cellular memory. If you fall down and hurt yourself and we end up clearing it, we can clear the reason you fell. What was behind that fall? We can clear that and the incident but then there is still the need to heal the wounds including the spiritual, mental, physical, and emotional bodies. The scraps and scars don't necessarily get released immediately. Unless fully released from the subconscious, there is cellular memory that can be carried forward lifetimes. Each time you repeat the same scenario, a story is built or enhanced and layers may be necessary to release to set one fully free.

Now, apply that to what is going on globally. By clearing the background of situations that are negatively affecting you, you are seeing light bringing up the darkness within. Your negative memories and karma is being triggered so they can come up to be released. Now, multiply that by the number of people on the planet. To put it lightly, there are many frightened and grumpy people right now.

The challenge lies in seeing what has been hidden from both within themselves as well as on a global basis. Many don't know how to deal with their own emotions let alone the emotions being triggered within others.

God mentioned the other day that we will witness more of the divide between those who are aligned with him versus those who are going it alone. Those that are trying to navigate these trying times on their own are struggling more than those of us who know how to surrender all to God. Those who have unhealed emotions and baggage, are often blocked from complete surrender in those areas. Those who are surrendered to God, allow God to work through them and aren't experiencing the same challenges others are these days. If you have fear or are confused, you know you are not surrendered.

God warned that those who are resistant to the light, will become more noticeable in the days to come. When aligned with God, solutions are much accessible. There's nothing to fear when aligned with and surrendered to God, the Source, within all.

One of the reasons we are always including global issues, as well as personal ones, within our monthly calls is to help address all. We are always clearing additional layers within the participants so they can become fully free. It's time to live a life of ease.

We always have a special topic in our group calls. This one is regarding men, the father aspect of all, and includes many aspects negatively affecting men as well as all genders and situations. Our highest goal is always to have you become a pure vessel, connected to the highest aspects of yourself, to achieve your goals with more ease. It's time to heal all old wounds and limitations for you to soar with ease.

By the way...for those of you who have been toying with checking out one of these group calls, this may be the time to do it. We are looking to move this to a subscription based service only. We may be adding some new features as well but this next call may be the last time we offer a one-time group clearing option. My goal is to be able to offer our regulars more benefits and features going forward.

May you successfully soar with ease...

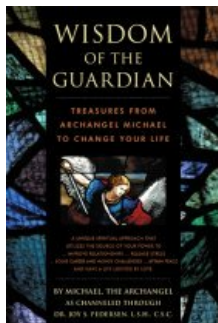

Love,

Joy

PS: Don't forget to join our Facebook group, Help from Heaven, for further discussion. However, I won't likely be communicating much in the next five days.
